The English had previously attempted to establish colonies in North America, but these efforts often failed due to logistical issues, conflicts with indigenous peoples, and internal disagreements.

The Virginia Company of London

Investors hoped that the new colony would yield economic benefits through the extraction of resources, trade, and the establishment of a foothold for English expansion.

In December 1606, three ships—the Susan Constant, the Godspeed, and the Discovery—set sail from England, carrying around 105 settlers, along with supplies and equipment.
