Moving into the 20th century, Swedish literature was marked by a transition from romanticism and realism to modernism and existentialism. Writers like Pär Lagerkvist and Eyvind Johnson garnered international recognition, often addressing themes of individualism, alienation, and societal change. The post-war period saw a diversification of voices, with literature reflecting Sweden's rapid social and economic transformations.

In the 21st century, Swedish literature has become increasingly pluralistic, incorporating diverse voices, genres, and media, thus reflecting a globalized and interconnected world.
